PURPOSE OF THE TREATMENT, LEGAL BASIS AND CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE DATA:	According to art. 6 letter b, e, the processing of your personal data does not require express consent and will be aimed at:
	PURPOSE	LEGAL BASIS	CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO PROVIDE DATA
	The execution of all the obligations necessary for the provision of the requested services	Fulfilment of the obligations arising from the existing contractual relationship	With regard to personal data relating to the execution of the contract of which you are part or relating to the fulfilment of a regulatory obligation (for example, the fulfilments related to the keeping of accounting and tax records), the failure to provide personal data prevents an improvement of the contractual relationship itself.
	Exercise the rights of the holder, such as the right of defense in court.	Legitimate interest of the holder	The provision of data is mandatory because it is necessary for the exercise of a legitimate right of the Controller.
The data in the possession of the holder will be processed in accordance to the principles set out in art. 5 of the GDPR such as: lawfulness, correctness, transparency, limitation, minimization, integrity and confidentiality.
RECIPIENTS OF THE DATA:	Within the scope of achieving the purposes described above, your data may be communicated to employees and collaborators within the structure of the holder, in their capacity as persons in charge of processing. These data will be processed according to the instructions specifically given. Outside of the structure of the Controller, the data may be communicated to external collaborators and companies that provide services to the Controller in their capacity as specifically authorized processors, for example: • Professionals and consultants; • Companies that provide technical support to the holder; • Banking, financial and insurance institutions; • Judicial and administrative authorities for the fulfilment of legal obligations; • Consultants and assistants for computer hardware and software maintenance; • Third parties appointed by the holder to develop the company's commercial network.
DATA TRANSFER TO NON-EU COUNTRIES:	The Data holder shall not transfer data outside the borders of the European Community.
PERIOD OF DATA CONSERVATION:	The data collected will be persevered for the period strictly necessary to achieve the purposes described above and, in any case, for a period not less than that dictated by legal and/or fiscal obligations.
PROFILING:	Your personal data is neither subject to dissemination, nor to any fully automated decision-making process, including profiling.
RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT:	As the data subject, you always have the right to request the holder: • Access to your data and information • Correction and deletion ("right to be forgotten") of data • The restriction of processing or having the opportunity to oppose said processing • To request portability of the data • Withdrawal of consent to the treatment in order to enforce this right and the other rights provided by the GDPR. For the execution of your rights, you can contact the holder directly. You also have the right to lodge a complaint to the supervisory authorities (Data Protection Authority - www.garanteprivacy.it).
MODALITIES OF THE PROCESSING:	The data you provide, will be subject to processing operations with manual, computerized or telematics instruments, in any case in compliance with the GDPR and confidentiality obligations, which inspire the activities of the Controller. The data will be processed by computer, on paper and on any other suitable medium, in compliance with the appropriate security measures pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 1, letter F of the GDPR.
